

2nd Asian American Youth Leadership Forum
Sunday, November 5, 2017
1:00 pm - 4:00 pm

The Asian American Youth Program (AAYP) is a youth community-based program supported by the non-profit organization China AIDS Fund, Inc. (CAF). Its mission is to provide a platform to encourage Asian American youth to speak out about their experiences growing up at the intersection of two cultures. The AAY Program aims to help youth turn their experiences of diversity and adversity into strengths, grow in self-awareness and become a part of a larger community that inspires others to reach their full potential as leaders and thinkers.

The 2017 Youth Leadership Forum aims to provide Chinese American youths with the skills, attitudes and behaviors needed to successfully navigate the dual cultures that they live in and to become actively involved in their community.

Location: Sheraton LaGuardia East Hotel
135-20 39th Ave, 2nd Fl., Flushing, NY 11354

Speakers: Dr. Ning Lin (award winning neurosurgeon at Weill Cornell Medicine)
Dr. Judy Tung (internist at Weill Cornell Medicine, Chair of the Department of Medicine at NYPH and LMH)
